

Name _____

Date _____

Test Questions

1. In Maryland, law enforcement officers are required to prepare and file a report when contacted by someone who knows or reasonably suspects that he/she is a victim of identity theft. TRUE or FALSE?
2. Victims do not suffer emotional harm from identity theft.
TRUE or FALSE?
3. The federal law requires victims to obtain a police report to assert most federal rights.
TRUE or FALSE?
4. The Maryland Crime Victims' Resource Center provides direct victim services to assist with the _____, _____, _____ of crime.
5. The Maryland Crime Victims' Resource Center provides _____ legal services to victims of _____ crime.
6. In what ways do identity thieves obtain victim information?
  - a. Dumpster diving
  - b. Friends and family
  - c. Stealing the victim's mail
  - d. All of the above
7. Once a person notifies law enforcement that he or she is a victim of identity theft, the law enforcement officer shall—
  - a. Not file a police report because the crime did not occur in the county.
  - b. Count the report filed as an open case for purposes, which include compiling open case statistics.
  - c. Prepare and file a police report and provide a copy of the report to the victim.
  - d. Not file a police report.
8. What affect can identity theft have on victims?
  - a. Victims feel at ease.
  - b. Victims don't care.
  - c. Victims feel violated.
  - d. None of the above.
9. Name three ways that personal information can be used by identity thieves.
  - a.
  - b.

c.

10. Name one federal agency that can provide consumer resources to victims of identity theft? Pick the best answer.

- a. Central Intelligence Agency
- b. Drug Enforcement Administration
- c. Federal Trade Commission
- d. Federal Communications Commission